

What if all the dogs in the world disappeared?

Rubric

Include the Following	Scoring	Points
1. Theme sticks to one cohesive possibility	5: Theme is unified and limited to a single possibility 3: Theme is somewhat fragmented or explores multiple possibilities 1: Theme is fragmented and explores multiple possibilities.
2. Paper thoroughly explores the single possibility.	5: The possibility is explored thoroughly. 3: The possibility is explored adequately. 1: The possibility is explored superficially.
3. Paper appropriately uses math logic to develop possibility	5: Math logic is used well 3: Math logic is used adequately 1: Math logic is poorly used.
4. Theme is easily understood	5: The theme is easily understood. 3: The theme is understandable. 1: The theme is obscure.
5. One page, single space, twelve pitch font, proof read, spell checked.	5: All criteria met 4: Four criteria met 3: Three criteria met 2: Two criteria met 1: One criteria met
6. Extra points – Unusually well written, extra convincing, especially funny, etc.	Up to 5 points	